13 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
14 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
15 SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

16 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

17 Plaintiff,

18 v.

19 ENZO CESTONI,

20 Defendant.

21 Case No. CR 15-416 WHA

22 STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE ORDER
23 [PROPOSED]

24 With the agreement of the parties, the Court enters the following Protective Order:

25 Defendant is charged with violations of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(5). Upon receipt of a discovery 26 request, the United States will produce documents and other materials pertaining to the defendant and 27 the charged offense to defense counsel. The discovery to be provided going forward in this matter 28 includes documents or other materials falling into one or more of the following categories (collectively, “Protected Information”):

29 1. Personal Identifying Information of any individual (other than his or her name), including 30 without limitation any person’s date of birth, social security number, residence or business
31 address, telephone numbers, email addresses, driver’s license number, professional license
32 number, family members’ names, or criminal histories (“Personal Identifying Information”);

- 1       2. Financial information of any individual or business, including without limitation bank
- 2       account numbers, credit or debit card numbers, account passwords, contact information, and
- 3       taxpayer identification numbers (“Financial Information”); and
- 4       3. Medical records or other patient information of any individual covered by the Health
- 5       Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPPA) (“Medical Information”).

6       To ensure that Protected Information is not subject to unauthorized disclosure or misuse,

7       IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that defense counsel of record, their investigators, assistants, and 8 employees (collectively, “the defense team”) may review with the defendant all discovery material
9 produced in the future by the government, but shall not provide a defendant with copies of, or permit 10 defendant to make copies of, or have unsupervised access to, any discovery material produced in the 11 future by the government that contains Protected Information, unless the Personal Identifying 12 Information, Financial Information, and/or Medical Information has first been entirely redacted from 13 the discovery materials. The government and defense counsel are ordered to work together to ensure that 14 these materials are protected, but that defendant has as much access to the materials as can be provided 15 consistent with this Court’s order. Discovery material that clearly pertains to a specific defendant and 16 does not contain Protected Information regarding any other person (e.g., defendant’s own bank records, 17 telephone records, and business records) may be provided to that defendant unredacted.

18       Defense counsel may also provide unredacted copies of Protected Information to any experts
19 retained to assist with the preparation of the defense in the captioned case. The defendant, all members 20 of the defense team, and any experts who receive discovery under this Order shall be provided a copy of 21 this Order along with those materials and shall initial and date the order reflecting their agreement to be 22 bound by it.

23       The materials provided in the future pursuant to this protective order may only be used for the 24 specific purpose of preparing or presenting a defense in this matter unless specifically authorized by the 25 Court.

26       This Order shall also apply to any copies made of any materials covered by this Order.

27       This Order shall not apply to materials produced prior to entry of this Order.

28       IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that neither a defendant nor any member of the defense team

1 shall provide any discovery material produced in the future by the government—whether or not the 2 material constitutes or contains Protected Information within the meaning of this Order—to any third 3 party (i.e., any person who is not a member of the defense team) or make any public disclosure of the 4 same, other than in a court filing, without the government’s express written permission or further order
5 of this Court. If a party files a pleading that references or contains or attaches Protected Information
6 subject to this Order, that filing must be under seal.<sup>1</sup> This Order shall not apply to materials produced 7 prior to entry of this Order.

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defense counsel shall return materials subject to this 9 Protective Order (including any copies) to the United States within 14 days after whichever event occurs 10 last in time: dismissal of all charges against the defendant; defendant’s acquittal; defendant’s sentencing;
11 or the conclusion of any direct appeal. After the United States receives documents and materials subject 12 to this Order, it shall maintain those documents and materials until the period for filing a motion under 13 28 U.S.C. § 2255 has expired. After the statutory period for filing a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 has 14 expired, the United States is free to destroy documents and materials subject to this Order. If defendant 15 is represented by counsel and files a motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255, the United States will provide 16 counsel with the documents and materials subject to this Protective Order under the terms of this Order.
17 Defendant’s attorney in any motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 shall return the documents and materials
18 subject to this Protective Order within 14 days after the district court’s ruling on the motion or 14 days 19 after the conclusion of any direct appeal of the district court’s order denying the motion, whichever is 20 later. This stipulation is without prejudice to either party applying to the Court to modify the terms of 21 any protective order. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to modify this Order upon motion of either 22 party even after the conclusion of district court proceedings in this case. This Order shall not apply to 23 materials produced prior to entry of this Order.

28 <sup>1</sup> This Order authorizes such filings under seal and the parties are not required to seek additional authorization from the Court to do so.
